ARIZONA AUTHORS SUMMERTIME STORYTELLING & CRAFT SATURDAYS

Come and enjoy this summer reading program in June and July from 10 a.m. to noon at Pueblo Grande Museum! These programs are for children in pre-kindergarten through fourth grade, with each story being accompanied by related crafts and a light snack. Cost is $5 per child, and includes child's museum admission. Register online at pueblogrande.com or check-in at the front desk. All participants must be accompanied by an adult.

July 9: Hohokam: Prehistoric Inhabitants of Pueblo Grande, by John P. Andrews and Todd Bostwick • #12850

Discover how the Ancient Sonoran Desert People known as the Hohokam lived and farmed in the Arizona desert over 1000 years ago. Learn how they crafted the natural desert materials to become talented artists known for their pottery, jewelry and more!

July 16: The Twelve Days of Christmas in Arizona, by Jennifer J. Stewart • #12952

What if your cousin invites you to spend Christmas vacation in Arizona? And gives you all kinds of wacky gifts, like a cactus wren in a palo verde? Welcome to the 12 Days of Christmas in Arizona! Ready to greet you are 12 mules a-hauling, 11 sleds a-sliding, 10 sheep a-leaping, 9 cowboys signing... and much more from the Grand Canyon State.

July 23: Addie Slaughter: The Girl Who Met Geronimo, by Reba Wells Grandrud and Susan S. Krueger • #12953

Based on the actual stories that Addie Slaughter (daughter of famous Arizona Sheriff John Slaughter) told to her daughter Adeline Greene, this book follows Addie as she and her family bravely travel from Texas to the Arizona-Mexico border, to settle on the late-1800s Slaughter Ranch.

July 30: La Madre Goose, by Juana Martinez-Neal • #12954

Classic Mother Goose rhymes get a Latino twist in this cozy collection. From young Juan Ramón sitting in el rincón to three little gatitos who lost their mitoncitos, readers will be delighted to see familiar characters in vibrant, luminous scenes brimming with fanciful details.
